How To Deal With

Unwanted Calls & Do-Not-Call Registries

1. Unwanted and uninvited, harassment, telemarketing or obscene calls disturb the tranquility of private life. On the other hand, strict Do-Not-Call regulations impede legitimate business. To strike a balance, there are various approaches. The following is a compilation of available solutions.

- A. Retail Product for individual to stop Unwanted Calls
- B. Phone Company \(LEC\) Service to manage Unwanted Calls for consumer
- C. Network Service for industry to utilize Do-Not-Call Registries
- D. Law, Regulation and Do-Not-Call Registry

1. Initial content of this comparison table is based on our best interpretation of marketing and sales material available in the public domain. To ease the effort in making comparisons, expressions that might be uniformly applied to most cases are used, instead of specific terminologies preferred by respective providers.
2. Data presented below is our best attempt to collect and disseminate such information. Inputs for corrections and updates from respective providers are appreciated. Revisions will be based upon submitted supporting material that is sufficient for general public to verify.
3. If you are a provider of any applicable Product or Service that has not been mentioned, please submit a detailed description in the same format as the comparison table below to be included in the next update.
4. If you have suggestions for additional comparison parameters to facilitate general public's understanding of this subject, we would appreciate your input as well.
5. Please e-mail all comments & communications to Marketing@Avinta.com . We will acknowledge the receipt of each message within 2 business days and state follow-up actions, if any.
